ABOUT TRUCKMAN

TRUCKMAN – THE UK'S LARGEST HARDTOP MANUFACTURER

For over 35 years, Truckman has been recognised as one of the UK's leading hardtop and accessory suppliers for the pick-up market - the ideal accessory for both leisure and commercial customers.

Truckman hardtops are renowned for their robust, secure and stylish features, which is why Truckman has been an approved accessory supplier for Isuzu since 2001.

The hardtop range has been specifically developed using state-of-the-art techniques to complement the stylish lines of the Isuzu D-Max and inevitably produce the perfect hardtop for customers.

All Truckman hardtops are designed in the UK, whilst our renowned commercial range are designed, engineered and manufactured at Truckman's West Midlands headquarters.

WHAT WE OFFER

With over 120,000sq ft. of premises, Truckman offers the largest stock and production of hardtops and pick-up accessories in the UK.

Truckman's UK headquarters includes a research and development department, a state-of-the-art production facility, training area, fully stocked warehouse, the sales and marketing office, plus a dedicated customer service team.

Truckman offers over 25,000 different products to fit a variety of vehicles (new and old), and with stock management being an integral part of Truckman's ethos, it allows us to easily keep up with demand across the UK and worldwide.

Customer service is the key to Truckman's success, from advising customers on their most suitable hardtop and accessories to arranging specialist requests for fleet customers looking to bulk buy a bespoke utility hardtop.

WORKING TOGETHER, BETTER TOGETHER

Truckman has been working in partnership with Isuzu for over 17 years and together, we have developed a range of hardtops and accessories that offer a stylish and secure storage solution for D-Max customers.

All Truckman accessories come with a peace of mind 3-year warranty.

To find out more and discover which hardtop best suits you and your requirements, please contact your local Isuzu dealership or visit:
